Office Note

In sanctioning the appointment of Personal Clerk to the Councillors the pay of each Clerk was fixed in the first instance at Rupees 70 rising to Rs. 100 by an annual increment of Rs. 15.

Accordingly T. Dharmaraj Chetty was appointed as 1st Councillors Personal Clerk from 4th April 1895 and continued in Service till 17th February 1896 from which date he was granted leave without allowances for one year. In his stead P. A. Sawmy Chetty was appointed sub protem on full pay viz. Rs. 70 and continued to draw the same till 1st April 96, from which date he was allowed to draw Rs. 125 along with with others in accordance with Memo: No: 1804/P&A 306 dated 4th August 1896, which reads as follows:—

"In modification of this office Memo: No: 1752/P&A 298 dated 31st July 1896 it is ordered that the pay of each of the Councillors Personal Clerks will be Rupees 125 with effect from 1st April 1896 rising to Rs. 150 at the end of one year from that date."

Dharmaraj Chetty returned to duty from his leave on 15th February 1897 and his pay is being disbursed at Rs. 125 from that date.

Now that the pay of the Personal Clerks is to be drawn at Rs. 150 from 1st April 1897 under the authority of the above Memo, orders are solicited as regards the rate at which which Dharmaraj Chetty pay should be drawn whether at Rs. 125 or at Rs. 150 like that of the other Personal Clerks. If Sawmy Chetty had been continuing as acting Personal Clerk till now without Dharmaraj Chetty returning from his leave, then the former will draw at Rs. 150 like other Personal Clerks. The rule on this point is that contained in article 105 of the Imperial Service Regulations, which lays down as follows:-

"Time spent on
"leave with allowances
"counts towards
"increments in the
"same manner
"as if during it the
"officer had actually
"held or officiated
in

" in (as the case may be)
" the appointment on
" which he has a
" lien "

Dharmaraj Chetty
was on leave without allowances and not
on leave with allowances.

Note.

The appointment of Personal Clerk to a Councillor is a Prospective appointment on Rupees 100 – 25 – 150. Under clause (b) of article 100, Nanaswami Rao can only get his substantive pay only Rs 30 plus acting allowance calculated upon 100 Rs in the first year, upon 125 Rs in the second year & upon 150 Rs in subsequent years.

The value of a prospective appointment is fixed in the manner prescribed in article 96. For financial purposes therefore the appointment of Councillors Personal Clerk is valued at over 100 Rs. Article 87 accordingly abolishes & the acting allowance is 1/5 of the minimum Rs 100

What has now been given to Nanaswami Rao Rs 30 + 20 = 50 is all that is admissible under the Rules

Under article 91, a new man can only be allowance - or as a new man? A boy never likely to recommend that he be given a somewhat higher allowance of the fact that he is practically a watchman as a result case in consideration acting for any particular clerk - the duty [illegible] fixed for convenience Personnel clerks was 20 - 15 = 100 & this was subsequently raised to Rs 25-15

ie Rs 50 Q.
one half of Rs 100. I suppose I am unable to under-
-stand what makes Mr Madhava Rao think that Narasimham Rao would have got more if he had not already held an appointment in the Dewan's office. I am sorry he should have taken the view that
this young man who was working under me & in whose advancement
I am naturally interested
"has been treated unfairly"
by me in the matter of
his acting allowance.

Under article 92, a higher allowance can be specially given not exceeding the difference between the pay of the appointment
& the Portion of pay drawn by the absentee. In the present case however there is no absentee &
there is no leave.

Though under the Rules Narasimham Rao cannot claim more than 50 Rs
whether as a Peon already holding a substantive
